Containing the freshest Advices Foreign and Domestick.

PARIS, May 22. O. S.

WE have just receiv'd News of a very considerable Advantage gain'd by the English at Carthagena; particularly, that Admiral Vernon has taken all the Forts which defend the Place, and that he depended on being very soon Master of it; which News has put the Publick into a great Agitation. A Courier was immediately dispatch'd with it for Madrid; from whence it's advis'd that the Squadron they expect home from the West-Indies under Don Rodrigo de Torres, is only to bring the Treasure belonging to the Spanish Court, so that God knows how long the Merchant Adventurers may wait for their Share of the Plate-Fleet.

Breslau, May 17. O. S. A few Days ago the King call'd a grand Council of War to take the Advice of his Generals in regard to his Design of advancing towards the River Neiss. They all agreed on the Necessity of bringing Matters to a Decision. The King having resolv'd to go and encamp in the Plain of Grotkau, his Majesty sent out a Detachment of Horse the 14th Instant to mark out the new Camp. The same Day the Baggages with Part of the Army, filed off thither. The next Morning at three o'Clock the King quitted the Camp of Molwitz, and the whole Army, marching in three Columns, arriv'd before Noon in the Camp of Grotkau, which is about a League from Neiss. A Detachment of Dragoons, that were order'd the same Day to reconnoitre the Posture of the Austrians, advanc'd even under the Cannon of that Town, but met with no Enemies, all those that were on this Side of the Neiss having repass'd it at the Approach of the King's Army. The Velt Marshal Count Neuperg continues in his Camp, and is preparing for a vigorous Defence: He has also laid up a great Quantity of Provisions and Ammunition at Neiss, and repaired the Fortifications; so that we foresee it will not be taken so soon as Breig was, in case the King intends to lay Siege to it. The Lord Hindford, the British Minister Plenipotentiary, has receiv'd a Courier from Vienna with Advice that the Queen of Hungary persists in her Resolution not to listen to an Accomodation unless the King withdraws his Troops from this Country; but as his Majesty never will accept a Preliminary of this Nature, the War is likely to last a little longer in Silesia.

Hague, June 11. Letters just arriv'd from Silesia, advise that the King of Prussia had made himself Master of Neiss by Capitulation; but they don't mention the Day it surrender'd.

LONDON,

May 26. The St. Antonio, a Spanish Privateer lately taken and brought in by the Rupert Man of War off of Scilly, is ordered to be fitted out as a 20 Gun Ship, to cruize off St. Sebastian's.

May 28. By some Persons lately arriv'd from France, we have an Account, that War is the general Topic of Discourse in that Kingdom; particularly in Britanny, where the Inhabitants are in high Spirits on that Account, promising themselves great Advantages from Privateering, for which they were more famous in the late War than any other Province of France.

There is also Advice from Dunkirk, that they are every Day in Expectation of hearing War declar'd against England; on which they say, they will make Dunkirk more terrible to the English Merchants than St. Sebastians.

A Fever of a very malignant and unusual Kind has rag'd for some Time, in several Parts of the West of England; which has already prov'd fatal to Numbers. Scarce three in ten recovering, and most of the others dying in two Days after they are taken. It seizes the Patient in the Back and Head at once, and has hitherto by all Accounts, baffled the Art of the Physician both as to its Cause and Cure.

From Gibraltar we hear, that a Conspiracy has been discovered there to take the Town by Stratagem; and that four of the principal Persons concern'd therein, one whereof was a Spaniard, another a Portuguese, and two Genoese, had been taken and put into Irons The Design was to bring a sufficient Number of Spanish Forces concealed on board several Vessels laden with Provisions from the Barbary Coast, who, under the Directions of the four Captives, that were well acquainted with the Fortifications of the Town, were in the Night to have surpriz'd the Garrison, and made themselves Masters of the Fortress.

Last Saturday there was a great Number of new Great Guns prov'd at Woolwich, before his Grace the Duke of Montague, Master General of the Ordnance, some foreign Ministers, and several Persons of Distinction; and also an Engine for the better Management of Great Guns, which gave general Satisfaction. There was more Company at Woolwich on this Occasion than has been for some Years past.

A very considerable Number of Ships are intended to be sent to Jamaica, with Stores of all sorts for Admiral Vernon's Fleet, it being intended to push the War with the utmost Vigour in that Part of the World.

Early on Tuesday Morning began the hottest Press below Bridge, that has been known since the Commencement of the War against Spain. They took all they could lay Hands upon, whether they had Protections or not, on Board or on Shore; and 'tis said, that by 12 a-Clock they had got above 1000 Men, most of whom were immediately sent down the River in Smacks, and put on board Men of War.

And Yesterday they press'd the Mackarel Smacks; an Instance not known, 'tis said, in the hottest Part of the late Queen Anne's War.

Last

Laſt Night an Expreſs arrived with Advice, that the Swedes had declared War againſt the Ruſſians. And that 60,000 Ruſſians were actually on the March for the Frontiers of Sweden, under the Command of General Laſcy.

Orders have been ſent from the Lords of the Admiralty to the Commiſſioners of the Navy, to provide Ships to carry the Engliſh Troops with all Expedition to Holland.

We hear that a Squadron of 14 Men of War will be ſent forthwith to the Streights, to reinforce Admiral Haddock.

We hear that there will be forty Men of War at Portſmouth in a Fortnight's time, and that upwards of twenty of them are to ſail to the Baltick, and the Remainder are to be the Squadron of Obſervation.

Letters from France mention, that the Affair of Carthagena has had ſuch an Effect in that Kingdom, that their Stocks have fallen Eight per Cent. The French having a great Stake in their Treaſure which was expected home by the Galleons; but they were diſappointed by the Vigilance of the brave Admiral Vernon.

We hear, that their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices have iſſued Orders for the Troops deſign'd for Embarkation for Holland, to be in readineſs to march at an Hours warning.

The Train of Artillery to be embark'd with the ſaid Troops is preparing at Woolwich with all Expedition, and many Carriages for the ſaid Purpoſe are already landed at the Tower.

A War is reſolv'd upon by the Turks againſt the Perſians.

The Spaniſh Squadron, conſiſting of nine Men of War that were cruizing from Cadiz, are put into Ferrol, having taken ſeven Engliſh Prizes, among which is the Vernon Privateer, belonging to Boſton in New-England, commanded by Capt. Wallis; the Particulars of the other Prizes are not known.

They write from Genoa, of the 20th paſt, that a Veſſel is arriv'd there in four Days from Toulon, by which we learn, that the Court of France has ſent Orders to that Port for their fitting out 12 Men of War by September next.

This Day it was currently reported that a French Squadron of 12 Men of War was ſail'd from Breſt, North about for the Baltick.

The Furnace Bomb Ketch, that is deſign'd for the diſcovery of the North East Paſſage to India, is victualling with all Diligence: She carries 18 Months Proviſions, and a great Stock of Brandy, which will be of the utmoſt Service in that cold Country.

Extract of a Letter from Petersburg.

Tho' Affairs are in the utmoſt Confuſion in this Northern Part of the World, and that a War appears inevitable between this Nation and Sweden, the Ruſſian Miniſtry has in nothing chang'd the Reſolution which it had taken, of ſending 20 or 30,000 Men to the Aſſiſtance of the Queen of Hungary.

Letters from Dunkirk adviſe, that an Engliſhman has been lately hang'd there for taking the Soundings about that Harbour, and having ſeveral Mathematical Inſtruments in his Poſſeſſion.

June 4. By Letters from the ſeveral Counties in this Kingdom, as well diſtant as adjacent, we find that they have had ſuch delightful Weather, with ſeaſonable Showers intermix'd, that they have the Proſpect of as fine a Crop, and as fruitful a Year, as has been known in the Memory of Man.

The Bonetta Sloop of War, from Oporto, is arriv'd at Plymouth, and brings Advice, that the Spaniſh Fleet, conſiſting of 11 capital Ships and 4 Frigates, was ſailed from Ferrol, but whither was not known.

With ſuch Succeſs has the Preſs for Seamen been carried on, that in 36 Hours from its Revival, eight Tenders loaded with Men had been ſent down the River, and no leſs than 2370 Men had been enroll'd in the Navy-Books. The Caſe of the Commanders of Merchant-Ships, to pay for Protections for their People, and yet have them ſnatch'd away juſt as they were about to ſail, is very hard.

The Lords of the Admiralty having granted Warrants for impreſſing Landmen, great Numbers in Conſequence thereof have been taken, and put on board the Tenders.

Orders have been ſent down from above for a large Quantity of Victualling Stores to be ſent to Gibraltar and Port-Mahon immediately; on which Account the Victualling-Board ſat till ten o' Clock laſt Night, and reſolv'd to hire Ships for that Purpoſe, but give the Merchants no more time than To-morrow, to offer their Propoſals for letting their Veſſels out to Freight.

Letters of the 22d O S. from Hanover ſay, they keep a good Look-out there after 30,000 Pruſſians, that are aſſembled at Gethen, under the Prince of Anhalt; and that all the Troops of that Electorate, have Orders to be ready to be reviewed forthwith, by his Britannick Majeſty.

Yeſterday was held a Navy Board for the hiring of Ships to tranſport the Forces deſign'd for Flander; but only four were taken up.

June 9. By Yeſterday's Lisbon Mail we have an Account that the Triumph Privateer, Gideon Ball Commander, who ſail'd on a Cruiſe with 120 Men the 10th of laſt Month, from Falmouth, in Company with the Prince Frederick Packet, ſaw in the Evening a Sail at a Diſtance, which Capt. Ball gave Chace to, and came up with about One in the Morning, and prov'd to be the Rupert Man of War of 60 Guns, commanded by Capt. Ambroſe, each taking the other for a Spaniard, in the Night. They fir'd from the Man of War a Gun to bring the Triumph to, which ſhe not doing, immediately follow'd a Broad ſide, with a Volley of ſmall Arms: Capt. Ball return'd it, and behav'd with the utmoſt Bravery and Courage for 18 Minutes, during which Time the Man of War ſhot 56 Shot, ſix of which were from his lower Tier. No Men were kill'd on either Side; but Capt. Ball had three Men ſlightly wounded, and received a great deal of Damage in his Sails and Rigging; and the Man of War had a double-headed Shot, 9 Inches deep, in the Head of his Main-maſt. After the Action, Capt. Ambroſe took 39 of his beſt Hands, and left him only Landmen.

June 11. 'Tis reported that Admiral Haddock is actually under Sail with 11 Men of War of the Line, beſides ſeveral ſixth Rates, Fireſhips, &c. in Purſuit of the Spaniſh Fleet now at Sea from Ferrol, and that he does not doubt of giving a good Account of them very ſhortly.

By a Letter from Plymouth we hear, that the Deptford Man of War has brought into that Port a Spaniſh Privateer of 12 Carriage and 10 Swivel Guns, and 150 Men. That this Privateer had taken upwards of 24 Engliſh Ships in all her Cruizes; and that ſhe was taken but ſeven Hours after ſhe came out of St. Sebaſtians. This is the ſecond Prize the Deptford has taken lately.

This Week no leſs than three Meſſengers have been diſpatch'd from the Admiralty to Chatham, Sheerneſs, &c. to haſten out the Men of War now ready.

Which Ships are all ordered to Spithead; and it's ſaid 15 are to ſail under Commodore Brown, to reinforce Admiral Haddock. And,

That fourteen are to ſail under Admiral Balchen to the Baltick.

'Tis ſaid ſix Men of War are ordered to ſail from Spithead the firſt fair Wind, to meet the homeward-bound Turkey and Streights Fleets.

The Commiſſioners of the Navy have taken up 7 Ships to carry Stores to Carthagena.

The

The Commiſſioners of the Victualling Office have contracted with private Bakers, for 14,000 Bags of Biſcuit for the Uſe of the Navy, at 17 ſ. per Bag. This is look'd upon as the greateſt Contract of that Kind that ever was known.

June 13. It is ſaid, that Tranſports will ſoon be taken up by the Commiſſioners of the Navy, to carry 2000 Troops more to the Weſt-Indies; and that they will ſail at the ſame Time under Convoy of 8 Men of War.

Extract of a Letter from the Hague.

"The Syſtem of France, notwithſtanding the Intentions of the Cardinal for maintaining Peace, ſeems to be quite changed, by Affairs being ſo unluckily embroiled as at this Juncture. His Eminence no longer prevails in the Council, and is greatly embarraſs'd to accompliſh his pacifick Views, without expoſing the Intereſt of France to imminent Danger of being prejudiced by the great Events which ſeem to be throwing all Europe into a violent Criſis.

Letters from Gibraltar adviſe, that the Deptford Man of War had ſent in there a rich Prize taken off Cape St. Mary's. She's a French Veſſel, and was laid hold on by a leſſer Ship, who examin'd her and let her go again; but the Deptford's Men on ſearching more narrowly, found 56 Pieces of Braſs Cannon, moſt of 36 Pounders, on board her, which having the King of Spain's Arms on them, make her a good Capture.

Some Letters from Jamaica mention, that five Sloops loaded with Engliſh Goods, had been down on the Spaniſh Main, where the Inhabitants bought them with the utmoſt Pleaſure, at an extraordinary Price, they being in great Want of Woollen Goods, &c. The People ſeem to have no Concern at the Demolition of their Fortreſſes at Porto-bello, &c. having been by that Means, in ſome Meaſure, freed from the Inſolence and Avarice of arbitrary Governors, who fleec'd them at Diſcretion. And the humane and political Behaviour of the brave VERNON, has brought them to an Opinion, that the Britiſh Arms are really employ'd rather to reduce to Reaſon the Court of Spain, than to prey on its Subjects.

NEW-YORK, Auguſt 24.

Laſt Week arrived here in 21 Days from Jamaica, Capt. Jauncey, by whom we hear; that 3 Days after he left that Place, he met the Tilbury, Capt. Long, who inform'd him, that he left the Fleet at St. Jago de Cuba, that the Cumberland was got into that Harbour, and all the Land Forces on Shore. That one of our 40 Gun Ships cruizing off Carthagena, had met with two Spaniſh Regiſter Ships going in there, one of which was taken, the other got into the Harbour, and was purſued by our Man of War, but the Spaniards having raiſed a Faſcine Battery of 40 Guns, he was obliged to return.
